An Overview of LIFE Teen at St. Theresa Parish

Mission Statement

The purpose of the LIFE Teen Program is to create an environment that leads high school teenagers into a relationship with God through Jesus Christ and His Church.

This mission is accomplished in three ways:

1. Through the celebration of the Eucharist;
2. Through the teachings of Christ and the Church;
3. Through an experience of being loved and accepted.

Teen Culture

While it is certainly exciting to be alive during the year 2007, it is not always easy being a teen. Today's teens are under many difficult and complex issues and influences. Many teens are numb about life and their future, yet all of them are searching for identity. We don't need psychology to prove this: MTV, Hollywood, the internet, and the Mass Media all want the teens to be the consumer of their products. John Paul II, called this pervading culture of our day the 'Culture of Death'. LIFE Teen at St. Theresa Parish is helping to provide young people with an alternative youth culture, a culture based on Jesus Christ, His Church, and the Gospel of Life.

LIFE Teen Background

The LIFE Teen program is a Catholic youth ministry program founded in 1985 at St. Timothy's Catholic Community in Mesa, Arizona. The program grew to such popularity that it was marketed and is now duplicated in over 1000 parishes across the country. St. Theresa Parish adopted the Life Teen model in 1991, and has seen tremendous stability and growth in recent years in the program. The LIFE Teen program centers around the Sunday evening 6pm Mass, geared to teens, young adults and their families. Following the Mass, teens meet in the LIFE Teen Room for a 'LIFE Night', and meeting with fellow high school students that helps them grow in their Catholic faith.

LIFE Teen Staffing

The LIFE Teen program is run by the youth minister, Ryan Howe. Assisting Ryan is the Core Team, a group of young adults who help bring teens into the program and plan the 'LIFE Nights'. Each Core member, acting in a volunteer capacity, has been interviewed and evaluated by Ryan to be a worthy representative of the Church to our teens. They spend many hours putting the program together to help young people know the value of Jesus and His Church.

What happens at LIFE Teen

The LIFE Teen Program at St. Theresa Parish is divided up into 4-month 'semesters', each based on a different catechetical theme. Every month roughly consists of two educational meetings, a social event and a special event, such as a retreat. The Sunday night LIFE Nights are evangelistic, helping every teen, no matter where they are at in their faith, to deepen their love for Christ. Meetings are open to both Catholic and non-Catholic teens. The meetings are creative, fast-flowing and are designed to engage the teens in a fun and exciting way so that they will be talking to their friends about the fun they had at LIFE Teen. All the meetings are based on the teachings of the Catholic Church, in unity with our Holy Father, Benedict XVI, our Bishop, Thomas, and our Pastor, Fr. Chuck.

Online Social Networking

Now more than ever high school teenagers are using the internet. While it can be a powerful tool, it can also be a dangerous avenue for teens to try to navigate. The LIFE Teen program at St. Theresa's has a presence on web sights such as twitter and facebook. It is encouraged for the both the teens and parents to become part of these online communities to receive updates about the program and to also encounter a safe online community. Links to both the twitter and facebook page can be found on the homepage of www.godtalk.org.

Conversion in the LIFE TEEN Program

At the heart of the activities in the LIFE TEEN program is the process of conversion, moving each teen deeper and deeper into a relationship with Christ through the Church. Conversion is our personal response to our baptismal promises. Through a conversion that is holistic, touching every part of our lives, we develop a Catholic identity. The LIFE TEEN program is designed to reach teens where they are in their relationship with God. The activities in the LIFE TEEN program can be grouped as follows:

Preparation to Respond to the Good News: Pre-evangelization

For many teens, pre-evangelization marks the first point of entrance into the life of the Church. A teen in need of pre-evangelization is a teen that simply needs to feel comfortable with a Church environment. Often times this teen may be ambivalent toward the Church, or may even be hostile towards the Church. Hospitality to and relationships with these teens from the LIFE TEEN program is what counteracts these feelings toward the Church. Hospitality provides teens with a sense of belonging, and helps them feel comfortable just hanging out at the Church.

- Goal: To make the teens comfortable with the idea of church, with being at church, with the people, surroundings and settings of the Church.
- Pre-evangelistic activities at St. Theresa Parish: Wednesday Basketball (5-7pm in the Gym), Sunday Night Social events, Open Life room and 'hang out' time in the LIFE TEEN Room (snacks, pool table, ping pong, video games, entertainment center, air conditioning), relationships with the Core team and priests, visiting high school campuses.

Responding to the Good News: Evangelization

A teen that needs to be evangelized is one who feels comfortable with being at Church but cannot necessarily explain why he is at Church. He has not made a conscious decision to respond to his baptismal call and commit his life to Jesus.

- Goal: To answer the teens' key questions about faith and life, and to help them make commitments to follow Christ through the Church.
- Evangelistic Activities at St. Theresa Parish: Sunday Night 6pm Mass, Educational/Issue Sunday Night LIFE Nights, Fall and Spring Retreat, Confirmation preparation, Steubenville West youth conference.

Developing a Well-Rooted Faith: Catechesis

A teen that needs to be catechized is one that already has an active, conscious relationship with Christ, and has a desire to get to know Him on a deeper level. Through catechesis, teens will be given roots in the Catholic Faith so as to help them see the Truth of the Faith, especially in regards to other philosophies that are competing for their time.

- Goal: To help the teens develop a well-rooted faith in the Catholic Church for the purpose of giving them the tools for success as an adult Catholic.
- Catechetical Activities at St. Theresa Parish: Wednesday Prayer Meeting, Discipleship Retreat (summer), World Youth Day Pilgrimages.
